Approved For Release 2001/11/02 : CIA-RDP78-06362A000200010007-6

"It is the wish of the President that key military and civilian personnel assigned to positions of responsibility at posts within Latin America, the Near East, Africa, and Southeast Asia attend this five-week course prior to departing for their stations."

McGeorge Bundy, NSAM 163 11 June 1962

NSAM 283, 13 February 1964

"All officers assigned to 'key Positions' (as Determined by the Special Group (CI)) in the underdeveloped world or in headquarters positions related thereto, will receive special instruction at the National Inter-Departmental Seminar. This training will be considered as a prerequisite for assignment to designated 'key positions' although it will be available to other selected personnel on a case by case basis. Exception to this training as a prerequisite to such assignment may be made only by the head of the department or agency concerned." McG. B.

3 Jan 1969 SIG made Committee on Training responsible for overseeing 3-week course (condensed from 4 weeks). "The new course placed emphasis in the curriculum on developing greater sensitivity, analytical capability, and understanding of the factors an officer must consider in making judgements on policy application and program direction.
